MME. RISTORI IS DEAD

Succumbs to Pneumonia.

TRAGIC ROLES HER FORTE

Was Honored By Her Countrymen

better known as Adelaide Ristori, the ance with her. celebrated Italian actress, died to-day.

with Rachel of France, Siddons of England, and our own Charlotte Cushman, CHAPTER II.

Portraits.

treasurer to one of the largest working girl's clubs in London. She had already in the Royal Academy; she possessed an Naturally she was a very busy young woman indeed, who had very little spare time ever on her hands, but in spite of popularity and the adulation she received spoiled and unassuming girl, remarkable chiefly for a sweet and approachable demeanor and a manner whose charm was universally admitted, and which converted her most distant acquaintances into ad-

She was rather tall; slight, but not thin; she had a firm but gliding gait, an unimaginably graceful carriage. Her eyes were large and blue as the sea;

they looked at one directly, straight and true. Her chin was prominent, but softly rounded; her faintly aquiline nose was beautifully shaped, and its curved and quivering nostrils strangely matched the sensitive mouth beneath. She seemed to exhale kindness and distinction. To see her was to wish to know her.

Capt. Lethby had been in love with his cousin for quite six years, but after two refusals of his suit he had gradually settled into the assured position of her chum and closest friend. He had not abandoned all hope of winning her, but his addresses were never in evidence, and in consequence he had enjoyed for two years the privilege of her fullest confidence, and was usually also her appointed escort. He found in such constant companionship a solace for his long-repressed desires, and was therefore satisfied to wait. He was a frank and generous-hearted gentleman not good.

generous-hearted gentleman, not good-looking, but he looked good, and in spite of rather blunt and off-hand manners, was the best-liked officer in his regi-ment. It is true that he spent his money freely, and that he had plenty to spend, being an only son and heir to a baronetcy and uninvolved estates, two advantages alone sufficient to win for almost any

His open face at present wore an expression of embarrassment, for Miss Elliott was attentively regarding him, awaiting his reply to a question he appeared to find a difficulty in answering.

"Lord Francis Cressingham is a friend of yours, surely?" she repeated. "He ued to be, I know," added the girl. Capt. Lethby fenced with her. "Oh,

"But you do not like him? Out with resigned at once, he hasn't attempted to countess.

it, Jack; you have no secrets from me, have you?" with an arch smile.

thanks. What makes you so keen about

"At the Countess of Hobenstein's."

what under heaven took you there?"

The deuce! Beg pardon, Francine, but ah, well, of course, he used to be one of fer spirit, Lord Francis?"

Capt, Lethby fidgeted in his chair, gard and careworn, and appeared to be Well, er, the fact is, Francine, I like pervously uneasy, for his eyeglass defied him well enough. It's a question of respect. You see, he got badly mixed up that Russian affair, and although he est of nods, and turned to observe the tion. Our fellows say there was more in than mere carelessness; and then, he's thirty years of age, but she was so magi been acting so queerly ever since. Never cally preserved, and possessed of suc goes anywhere except to the house of excessive physical vitality that she seen that foreign Countess What's-her-name, ed at the utmost twenty-nine.

And even when one meets him there he She was somewhat above the average keeps out of one's road. Funny business height and molded languorously, the lith altogether. May I smoke?" and fascinating curves of her generously

"Why, yes, of course. But what do you think of it yourself?"

Capt. Lethby puffed out three long smoke wreaths. "Hum, er-well. Blessed if I know what to think. No more tea, thanks. What makes you so be care to the care lessly aside, she were a sile to the care lessly aside. She were a sile to the care lessly aside.

at anything like a proper explana- Katherin Viyella, Countess of Hoben man a certain popularity us, you know.

him, Francine?"

was there myself last night."

consequence, she remained an unpainted two pictures which had been hung asked.

THE COUNTERSTROKE

AMBROSE PRATT,

AUTHOR OF "VIGOROUS DAUNT, BILLIONAIRE."

Miss Francine Elliott, only daughter of didn't think she'd be your sort."

like her, Jack."

"Yes, Jack."

it the wall.

e his wife.'

Then tell me now."

respect with those women of intellectual the capitols of Europe, visited the United force who frequently become powers be-sind thrones and accomplish tasks of of the world. She made her debut in for her country were nobly remembered New York, in October, 1865. by Italians in 1902, when the anniversary of her eightieth birthday was the occasion for many celebrations in all the principal cities of her own country. Visited By the King.

On that occasion King Victor Emmanuel, accompanied by a numerous suite, visited and felicitated the actress. Not Only for Her Brilliant Career who held a kind of court as she received on the Stage, but Also for Her Pathe mayors and other dignitaries of a number of Italian towns who visited Rome to pay their respects to her. Queen Helena sent her a diamond bracelet. The Corporate Amboradow to Italian towns who delibe West Medford, improvised a remedy, with the result that her little three-year-old the presence of his father who had related to the presence of his father who had the presence of his father who had related to the presence of his father who had related to the presence of his father who had the pre Rome, Oct. 9.-The Marchesa Del Grillo, gret that he had not a personal acquaint- tag about her neck bearing the inscrip-

Mme. Ristofi was born to the stage and candy or pennies."

Everything is candy for the little Dot. She had been suffering from pneumonia for some time.

The King and Queen of Italy, and the Dowager Queen Margherita, sent sympamade her debut when she was only three months and later and some out a few minutes later, her two made her debut when she was only three months and the safety of pennics.

Everything is candy for the little Dot, and the minute a penny is given her she makes straight for the candy store, to come out a few minutes later, her two fat little cheeks puffed out with some thetic telegrams to Ristori's daughter, who nursed her mother until the last moment. Ristori's son, the Marquis Giorgio Capranica Dei Grillo, a gentle-

After her marriage in 1846, she retired land, and our own Chariotte Cushman, and created something of a furore when she visited the United States at the close of the civil war, and again just before the exciting period of the Tilden contest, to say nothing of her final visit during the Blaine campaign.

But to Italians she was honored not only as their greatest actress, but also as an ardent patriot, ranking in the latter mini." After that she appeared in all

"Do they? I don't believe it. There was big crowd there, and all good people. I

"Well, wonders will never cease;

The captain did not catch the point,

"Oh, how stern you look! Really, always meant to tell you-but somehow have never had an opportunity. There, don't look at me; turn away your head— so. You see, it was a little serious at

"Ah, please not to look, or I can't tell isn't serious now, Jack. I've got over

t. It was ever so long back, quite six months ago, my salad days in fact; every

"Go on," said Lethby, staring morosely

"He was going next day to St. Peters burg. We had a waltz together; then he took me to the library, and, and-he

"I, I rather liked it. He asked me to The girl's lips trembled. "N-no, Jack,

"The infernal cad!" growled Capt, Leth

"You are wrong," cried the girl. "I, I refused him. I have no right to com-

"Tell that to the marines!" eried the captain rudely, getting noisily to his feet as he spoke. But at that moment a serv-ant tapped at the door and entered, with he announcement: "The Countess of Ho

"I forgot to tell you she was coming

"And Lord Francis Cressingham," con

inued the footman pompously.

On mention of the second name, Miss Illiott turned quite pale and rose abrupt out her hand to the lady, who was paus ing on the threshold. Then: "So glad you came; allow me to present—the Countess of Hobenstein—Capt. Lethby Won't you sit here, countess? How d'you, Lord Francis! I fancy you gentle

"No, thanks, a cup of tea, if I may." Lord Francis Cressingham's handson and determined face was not seen to ad vantage just then; he looked a little hag-carelessly aside, she wore a clinging, seamless robe of fine gray lawn that fit-nen are acquainted. James, some fresh tea, please-and wine; or would you pre

"How do you do?" she said, holding lease stay, Jack," said Miss Elliott.

one has salad days, haven't they?

kissed me, Jack."
"Ah! and you?" very sternly.

'Francine, you love him!"

"Did you meet Cressingham there?"

diplomacy in directions not open to even London on June 4, 1856, at the Drury the most brilliant ambassadors. the most brilliant ambassadors.

She for years helped Count Cavour at Petersburg, and especially at Paris, to gain the assistance of Russian and France for the cause of Italy, and these services debut was made at the Lyric Theater, were pobly remembered debut was made at the Lyric Theater, New York in October 1865.

TAGGED HER LITTLE GIRL

People Were Advised Not to Give the Baby Candy.

From the Boston Journal.

does, for the little girl seems to be always well supplied with candy.

Where His Profit Came In.

Customer-So your sell these watches at $5 each? It must cost that to make them. Jeweler-It does. Customer-Then how do you make any Jeweler-Repairing them.

FROM WOMAN'S VIEWPOINT.

For running away from home and remaining away two weeks a sixteen-year-old girl was publicly spanked by her exasperated mother, who found her in a line before the box office of a theater. The taste of the performance may be questioned, but there can be no doubt of the extreme provocation or that the punishment was richly deserved. Young girls are getting too headstrong for their own good, and disappearances are so common that serious measures of restraint are necessary.

There is only one course open to parents who cannot control their children-to place them in the care of those who can compel obedience and proper behavior, as many parents have done. It is not a pleasant course to contemplate, but neither is the life untrained youth is likely to lead when it slips the halter of parental re-Fearing for her little daughter's health, straint. Boys and girls sometimes go wrong when they have the best of care and owing to a continuous supply of candy training, but in such cases there can be no regrets to augment the sorrow of their

I knew a sixteen-year-old boy, a petied son, who deliberately took his own life in German Ambassador to Italy presented a basket of flowers by command of Kaiser William, and expressed the Emperor's rewilliam, and expressed the Emperor's reabout West Medford Square with a small reasons. Yet the law places these youngsters completely under parential guidance. the presence of his father who had rebuked him for keping late hours and ordered and insubordination ought to be nipped in the bud by prompt punishments. It is bad enough for motherless girls in their teens to be thrust into the world to shift for themselves, but when misfortune overtakes them, there is nobody at home to be blamed or wounded.

In justice it must be said that the sorrow of parents is rarely taken into consideration by wayward daughters. In a perfectly selfish mood they strike out for themselves in the direction most alluring. Of course, the fault is way back somewhere in their training. There is a lack of respect for parental authority, and an unwholesome knowledge of the fascinations of life which ought never to Giorgio Capranica Dei Grillo, a gentleman-in-waiting in attendance on Queen Margherita, was in Paris with her when the great actress died. He is expected to reach Rome to-night.

baby. She was born in Cividale, Fruili, a suburb of Turin and her parents were humble folk. At the age of four years she had a walking part for the first time and played juvenile roles with her parents were humble folk. At the age of four years she had a walking part for the first time and played juvenile roles with her parents, brothers, and sisters until she was sixteen when she arrived home, ten minutes later, was sixteen when she won sufficient.

The candy store being next door, man-in-waiting in attendance on Queen have existed. Much of it comes rom injudicious reading, "cursed dime novels," as a father of two boys expressed it to me, the other day, some from mistaken
to reach Rome to-night.

Dot somehow found herself
have existed. Much of it comes rom injudicious reading, "cursed dime novels," as a father of two boys expressed it to me, the other day, some from mistaken
to reach Rome to-night.

Dot somehow found herself
have an outlet, and being denied the rational one of employment turns elsewhere.

Parents, brothers, and sisters until she
was sixteen when she arrived home, ten minutes later,
was sixteen when she arrived home, ten minutes later,
was sixteen when she arrived home, ten minutes later,
was sixteen when she arrived home, ten minutes later,
was sixteen when she arrived home, ten minutes later,
was sixteen when she arrived home, ten minutes later,
was sixteen when she arrived home, ten minutes later,
was sixteen when she arrived home, ten minutes later,
was sixteen when she arrived home, ten minutes later,
was sixteen when she arrived home, ten minutes later,
was sixteen when she arrived home, ten minutes later,
was sixteen when she arrived home, ten minutes later,
was sixteen when she arrived home, ten minutes later,
was sixteen when she arrived home, ten minutes later, was sixteen when she arrived home, ten minutes as a father of two boys expressed it to me, the other day, some from mistaken The candy store being next door, Miss ludulgence, and the remainder from the natural restlessness of youth, which must Marchesa Del Grillo, better known to the world as Adelaide Ristori, was accounted by many the greatest actress of her time. Had she lived until the 28th of next January, she would have rounded out eighty-five years of a career that has been remarkable in more respects than one. She ranked as a tragedienpe with Rachel of France, Siddons of Eng-

Busy hands are not searching for mischief or likely to even run across it. The dle girls are the runaways who keep distracted parents on the rack of uncertainty and if public spanking will reform just one of them, I will advocate it with all my might, overlooking the bad taste and everything else save the cause and possible effect. Young girls must not be allowed to throw away their lives, however much they may believe in their own strength and ability. Wiseacres have much difficulty in steering a good course, so why should children be more fortunate? I am afraid has long been a serious problem conthat our tendency to indulgence is developing into a dangerous weapon against our own happiness and the good of others. BETTY BRADEEN.

"Nonsense," cried the captain laugh- third finger of her left hand. A man's

"To please me"-with a caressing

The man turned pale. "I cannot." prospective victims, and she marked a fresh victim here. "Won't you come and speak with me?"

The captain, who had been about to decamp, deposited himself at her side with-

> "I shall call for you-shall we say at Miss Elliott. nine?" replied Miss Elliott.

from her hand. Capt. Lethby started forward, but Lord Francis picked it up. "Your glove, council comfortable. "If only tess," he said, following her to the door. in England," he sighed.

The countess smiled bewitchingly. "I want to carry you off with me to-night. I have a box at St, James. Please say that I may."

"Unhapplly, I cannot this evening, countess. I have to sing at a concert."

"Then won't you take me with you?

"I want to carry you off with me to-night, caught the countess' strange words, watched him searchingly, a satirical smile just curling her lips. He caught the look, and his pallor deepened. "I should like another cup of tea," he said.

"Then won't you take me with you?

"The Baltimore Sun thinks the Federal to advance it I had not you wenter deep the War Department to regiments or the War Department to regiments or posts where their services are most needed.

"The Baltimore Sun thinks the Federal to advance it had not you wenter deep the war department to regiments or posts where their services are most needed.

"The Baltimore Sun thinks the Federal to advance it had not you wenter deep the war deep the war beautiful."

The Baltimore Sun thinks the Federal to advance it had not you wenter deep the war heart, Miss Elliott."

His face grew passionately earnest as heart, Miss Elliott."

His face grew passionately earnest as heart, Miss Elliott."

His face grew passionately earnest as heart, Miss Elliott."

His face grew passionately earnest as heart, Miss Elliott."

His face grew passionately earnest as heart, Miss Elliott."

His face grew passionately earnest as heart, Miss Elliott."

His face grew passionately earnest as heart, Miss Elliott."

His face grew passionately earnest as heart, Miss Elliott."

His face grew passionately earnest as heart, Miss Elliott."

His face grew passionately earnest as heart, Miss Elliott."

His face grew passionately earnest as heart, Miss Elliott."

His face grew passionately earnest as heart, Miss Elliott."

His face grew passionately earnest as heart, Miss Elliott."

His face grew passionately earnest as heart, Miss Elliott."

His face grew passionately earnest as heart, Miss Elliott."

His face grew passionately earnest as heart, Miss Ellio must be going. Au revoir, Francine."

out the words with an effort that was The Baltimore Sun thinks the Pederal government might even up in the matter "You are blushing; you have a secret."

Miss Elliott blushed with pleasure. "If you would care really. It is the Factory ou some day."

"Good-bye, Jack; be here not later than you was here just "Good-bye, Jack; be here not later than you would care really. It is the Factory ou some day."

"Good-bye, Jack; be here not later than you was here just "ow, the Countess of Hobenstein."

"Ah!" the girl's eyes flashed and she have you had a headache? Do sit down!"
"Don't bother with the tea. Miss Elliott; you so much, dear; it will be a great it was only an excuse," said Cressing-

"Then some wine; shall I ring?" 'Please not.'

'A cigarette, perhaps?"

ingly, "more like ten pence; but your con- signet it was, cut from a single piece of

The girl, smiling composedly, drew the

The man took the ring and weighed it properly to perform these duties considcarefully upon his palm, his eyes down-cast. "I have no right to ask you to often happens that such men cannot be en's sake don't allow yourself to like her!" he cried. "She means you harm; swamp area in this section that by drain yes, Francine, she means you harm."

"Francine." echoed Miss Elliott, spring-"I thank you, no." He sat down upon chair, holding his cane tightly clasped ing to her feet; "you have no right to teeming populations. To say nothing name me so, and less to speak ill of my Miss Elliott toyed with a ring on the friends. How dare you say such a thing > Cressingham arose too, "I dare, Miss Elliott, because I, I once"—(he gulped down a breath)—"because I wish to be your friend, and surely it is a friend's part to warn his friend when there is danger. Pardon me one moment. Please warned. That woman has been my ruin; wantonly and deliberately she wrecked my career, and, not yet satisfied, she now pursues me with professions of affection. Recently she has chosen to regard you as a rival. I think that she is mad; at all events she is dangerous; I believe that she hates you. I know that she will try

"Forgive me, Miss Elliott; what I have said must sound to you herribly absurd and egotistical. But for all that I pledge you my honor it is true. I felt that it was my duty to warn you, even though has only worked me further injury."

Elliott coldly. "Ah, time. It is the only friend I have left." The words were spoken with such unaffected sadness that the girl's hear to the man and put her hand timidly

"Lord Francis, if what you say is true, why do you, why do you persevere in an acquaintance which appears to you so

He looked at her gravely, his eyes full of melanchely. "I cannot answer you, Miss Elliott." The girl drew herself erect, and survey ed him with a chilling smile. "I think is understand. Lord Francis, I thank you

He stood gazing at her implor-But Miss Elliott, turning her back, cross ed the room to ring the bell.

"Good-by," she replied, without looking at him; and with a quick sigh he de-into a deep armchair and thought these words aloud: "I suppose I can't be proper sort of woman, certainly not the sort that one reads about in improving books. I know I ought to feel frightfully indignant, the outraged divinity business, and all that. But I don't a bit love Frank Cressingham, and I don' care much who knows it, so long as h does not. As for that woman, she ha fascinated him, of course, but I don't be-lieve he loves her. I can feel that she is not a good woman. Any way and whether or not, she is not going to keep nim. He is too good for her, and I wan him; yes, I want him, want him with all

Then Miss Elliott went to her bedroom locked the door, threw herself upon her bed, and wept unreservedly for quite ter minutes.

 CREDIT FOR ALL WASHINGTON

Everything We Sell is Guaranteed

By us to give absolute satisfaction. Thus you are perfectly safe in dealing here, because you are protected by us, even though the manufacturer, knowingly or unknowingly, sells us some goods of inferior quality. Our guarantee applies to Carpets and other floor coverings, Curtains and Fortieres, Chinaware and furnishings, as well as to every piece of furniture in our establish-

PETER GROGAN

817-819-821-823 Seventh St.

Between H and I Sts.

COOKING IN THE ARMY.

Instructing Soldiers in Culinary Art at Fort Riley School. From the World To-day

The proper cooking of the army ration of civilian cooks is not permitted, as it would entail too much expense, and it is not considered practicable to take so BONBON."

Admirable Cast, including HARRY CONOR and SADIE MARTINOT.'
Beautiful Scenic Production.

Next Week-MANN AND LIPMAN in "JULIE BONBON."

many civilian employes, not subject to military discipline, into active campaigns cooks for each organization, the men so appointed receiving slightly increase compensation. The post or organization commander who can find among his sol enough experience in baking or cooking found, and then inexperienced men must be detailed to do the work, and poor baking and cooking, with all their attend-

It was Capt. M. S. Murray, of the Sub sistence Department, stationed at Fort "Capt. Lethby was here. I wanted to upon the plan of giving practical in-tay-to say something to you."

an impertinence."

Lord Francis looked excessively uncomfortable. "If only your father were in England," he sighed.

employed to assist in conducting the theoretical and practical instruction of the students. The course of instruction covers a period of four months. Two "Indeed! Sugar, countess?"

"If you please, my dear—may I call you 'my dear?" Do you know, I want to be great friends with you, Miss Elliott."

"That is sweet of you, countess. Lord "That is sweet of you, countess. Lord "That is of you have to do."

"Indeed! Sugar, countess?"

"She slightly turned her head, and muttered in a low, fierce whisper: "You dare to stay!" smiled, and was gone. Cressing-ham hesitated, hat in hand, as if uncertain what to do.

"That is advice you want to offer me, "Oh, it is advice you want to offer me, "Yes, advice; that is it." He caught can be advice; that is it." He caught can be advice which I would not dare talled from recruiting depots, and, after completing the course, are assigned by the War Department to regiments or of equity between the sections by approclasped her hands across her knee. "Be careful, Lord Francis. I like that of the South, as an offset to the millions devoted to reclaiming by irrigation the age could be transformed into the riches the Great Dismal Swamp, there is hard a county in lower Tidewater Virginia tha to me of the countess-and behind her does not embrace extensive swamps capable of such transformation.

EXCURSIONS.

Norfolk & Washington Steamboat Company Steamboat Company

Every day in the year from foot of 7th s for Fort Meuroe, Norfolk, Newport News, at all points south by the superb powerful ste palace steamers "Newport News," "Norfolk, and "Washington."

and Washington Dr. Portsmouth 5:00 p Alexandria 7:00 p m Lv. Norfolk 6:00 p Fort Meuroe 7:00 r m Lv. Fort Monroe 7:00 p Norfolk 6:00 a m Ar. Alexandria 6:00 a Portsmouth 8:00 a m Ar. Mashington 7:00 a

JNO. CALLAHAN, 2d V. Pres. and Gen. Mgr. W. H. CALLAHAN, Gen. Pass. Agt.

as my duty to warn you, even though it as only worked me further injury." "Time will show, my lord," said Miss Veterans

Visit the Historic Falls of the Potomac

GREAT FALLS AND OLD DO-MINION RAILROAD, CARS HALF HOURLY FROM 36TH AND M STS., transfer both ways with Capital Traction.

VETERANS! Don't Fail to Visit Great Falls IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Washington and Alexandria Ferry CHANGE OF SCHEDULE. On Thursday, Oct. 41, the steamer "Woodbury will be hauled off for annual inspection and repair After said date, and until further sotice, steamer "Gallahan" will make hourly trips, leaving Washington 6.30 a. m. to 6.30 p. m. Leave Alexandri a. m. to 7 p. m.

$48.25 TO CALIFORNIA Via WASHINGTON SUNSET ROUTE. Excursion Sleeping Cars Without Change.
Personally conducted 3 times weekly, $8.50

she is STEAMER CHARLES MACALESTER, and Daily, 10 a. m. and 2:30 p. in. (Sundays exce FARE EXCURSION TICKETS 50C.

> KENSINGTON. Cars from Chevy Chase Lake
> EVERY HALF HOUR,
> Connect with B. and O. R. R. trains,

I SAW YOUR AD. IN THE HERALD

George H. Brennan presents

COLUMBIA WASHINGTON'S LEADING THEATER TO-NIGHT 8:15. MATS. THURSDAY

AMUSEMENTS.

THE SENSATION OF TWO SEASONS, THE CLANSMAN,

(By THOMAS DIXON, JR.) The Original New York Production.

NEXT WEEK.

Mr. Henry W. Savage offers for its first performance in America MADAM

A TRAGIC JAPANESE OPERA by GIACOMO PUCCINI, composer of "Tosca," "La Boheme," &c. Scat sale for same begins Thursday, Oct. 11. Efftire orchestra, $3; front of balcony, $2.50; rear of balcosy, $2; gallery, $L.

NOTE-Mail orders for seats, accompanied by back or money order, received now. O-NIGHT New National MATTHEE TO-DAY

DE ANGELIS OPERA COMPANY, In the New Comic Opera THE GIRL AND THE GOVERNOR

NEXT WEEK-FRANCIS WILSON. BELASCO MATS WED. 25c-$1.00

THEATRE, EVEN-INGS. 250-$1.50 Independent of the Theatrical Trust, TO-NIGHT AND WEEK, The Comedy Success of Two Continents

MRS. TEMPLE'S TELEGRAM

MAJESTIC SAT DAY.

MONDAY, SOUVENIR NIGHT. TO NIGHT AND ALL THIS WEEK-ANNA DAY

When Knighthood Was in Flower. ALFRED SWENSON AS BRANDON. OGDEN STEVENS AS HENRY VIIL Next Week-"A SQUARE DEAL." Sunday Night, Mayer's Motion Pictures & Vaudeville.

CHASE'S POLITE VAUDEVILLE

"MENETEKEL," NEVA AYMAR and "THE RAIN-DEARS,"

MATINEES:
Tuesday, Thursday and Safurday.

ALL THIS WEEK The Natural Singing Irish Actor BARNEY GILMORE

A Rocky Road to Dublin. A Comedy-Drama of Ireland To-day, NEXT WEEK-CUSTER'S LAST FIGHT

Popular with the People. AILY. ALL THIS WEEK.

FAY FOSTER CO. 2-BIG BURLESQUES-2

Next Week-TWENTIETH CENTURY MAIDS Washington College of Music Series. AFTERNOON $7 CONCERTS

INCLUDING MME. NORDICA, SCHUMANN-HEINK, ROSENTHAL, GERTRUDE PEPPERCORN.

MISS ABBY JOHNSON,

Class and Private Lessons. 'Phone Main 5451, THE ABBY, Cor. L and 17th nw.

SPECIAL NOTICES. Lawyers' Printing.

-We make a specialty of Printing Law-yers' Briefs and Motions. Our work is Judd & Detweiler, Inc.,

The Big Print Shop, 420-22 ATTRACTIVE PRINTING -at attractive prices is our > -motto. Give us an oppor--tunity to prove to you how -well we live up to it.

Geo. E. Howard, 714 12th St.

PRINTER, ENGRAVER AND BOOKBINDER.

Hutterly "The Time Diece Expert"

732 7th St. N. W. 'Phone M. 3296. JACK Sines that Advertise

PROMPT JACK

Indexer of Store Fronts 924 D STREET

The Bookbind 420-22 11th St Phone M. 13 TERALD

I Do Just as

Dr. Carleton Vaughan

Herald Want Ads. 1 Cent a Word

"Please do not give Dorothea any

From Stray Stories.

black arched brows, were the home of a speaking spirit that lurked in their red-brown depths, a spirit endowed with such a power of sensuous suggestion that madame's shortest glance was able to

Capt. Lethby suffered the momentary fire of her regard, and surrendered at dis-"Ah," she murmured softly, her vowels

Miss Francine Elliott, only daugher of Col. Vernon Elliott, V. C., C. B., sat one afternoon in the library of her father's house in Berkeley Square, giving tea to her cousin and intimate friend. Capt. Lethby, of the First Dragoon Guards.

Lethby, of the First Dragoon Guards.

In Pullett, was twenty-four years of the first person who has said a word to me first person who has said a word to me first person who has said a word to me first person who has said a word to me first person who has said a word to me moments general. After a while, how-

"I saw him at a distance, He was and much in demand for four o'clocks and dinner parties; she loved dancins above all other pleasures, and during the five seasons since she had been "out" had contrived to be present and enjoy herself at aimost every fashionable ball given by society's set.

"Why not?" said Miss Elliett: "you know you are always welcome there Jack. Let me see; what was the amoun rou. It was at Lady Martin's ball. But of your last subscription? Ten pounds, I with both hands, t isn't serious now, Jack. I've got over think."

marked with a quaint and foreign round-ness of enunciation, "I have wished to meet you, Capt. Lethby."

She had never heard of him before, but camp, deposited himself at her side without heritage out hesitation, and Miss Elliott found heritage out he will you call for in her glance. "You spoke just now of an excuse," said exceedingly sweet contraito voice, and for four years past had sung at almost every charitable concert organized in the "Then won't you take me with you? I should so love to hear you sing."

'May I go too?" asked Capt, Lethby onvey a subtle and intoxicating chal-

t was one of her principles to flatter all

Miss Elliott was twenty-four years of age, and a girl of much parts and character. She managed, unaided, her father's household, her mother having died in her infancy; she was president of a woman's franchise society, secretary to an important private charitable institution, and treasurer to one of the largest working.

Miss Elliott was twenty-four years of her disparagingly."

The admirable hour. I shall expect stationed at the post. This women musical conversation for some moments general. After a while, howand across the floor with an indeating, half-surging gait, while and batteries stationed at the post. This something impertinent; I don't know how to gait, while and batteries stationed at the post. This wom have not called since you."

The shool was placed in the revident agitation filling the countess, while and Marie Stant Co. WER, "The Tomboys' scribable healt-floating, half-surging gait, who was president of a woman's franchise society, secretary to an important private charitable institution, and the trival of the disparagingly."

The solution in the kitchens of the troops and batteries stationed at the post. This would was submitted to the war Department of the war Department of the countess, while and batteries stationed at the post. This would was submitted to the war Department of the largest work of the countess, while and batteries stationed at the post. This work of the troops and batteries stationed at the post. This work work of the troops and batteries stationed at the post. This work was submitted to the war Department of the cap-the four will an indeating the counters, while and batteries stationed at the post. This work was submitted to the war Department of the cap-the four will an indeating the counters, while and batteries stationed at the post. This work was submitted to the war Department. The cap was submitted to the cap-the four will be supported. The solution in the kitchens of the troops and batteries stationed at the post. This work was prevent and the troops and batteries stat

He started and changed color, "No-I

"I was a poor girl once myself. Thank rts are good fun sometimes."

chrysophrase. Unconsciously Cressing military discipline, into active campaigns with the troops. It is, therefore, the erts are good fun sometimes." tess, turning languidly to Cressingham; he saw the ring he started visibly and custom to appoint from among the en-"you will come with us?" cried: "You wear that still, Fran-Miss listed men bakers for each post and "Thank you, no. I have an engage- Elliott."

He spoke so sharply that all stared at ring from her finger and held it out to tim. The countess smiled in his face. him. "I have worn it for the last fort-"Postpone it, my lord; I wish you to night, my lord, hoping for a chance to commander who can find among his sol-woman, as you call her."

The man almost groaned. "For heavard wastes of the West, Surely. There let me speak. I know that what I an saying will cut me off from your ac quaintance for all time, but say it must, so that at all hazards you b

"My lord!" Miss Elliott seemed trying was touched. She moved a step n for the warning. Perhaps it was kindly meant. Need I detain you longer?"

"No." Cressingham bowed low. "Good

When the girl was quite alone she sank

CONTINUED TO-MORROW.

Contrasting Plaids Yield Smart Effects.

For the thousand and one uses that a general utility wrap has to meet the graceful chic of this design cannot fail to make it acceptable Plaids are the thing this autumn, and a charming note in this model shows one of the somewhat indistinct plaids used in the coat itself, while the touch of trimming that is so inted her with glove-like closeness, its sim- gisted upon this year is cleverly applied in a silk poplin that displays quite an-

The girl gave a queer little smile. "You plicity daring to excess, night offer me a cigarette, Jack. Her face, less beautiful than bewitch-

DAILY FASHION HINT.

other genre of plaid.

might offer me a cigarette, Jack.

Thanks." As she lit the eigarette she gave a contented sigh and remarked: "I chantress. Its only strictly perfect feature there must be a contented sigh and remarked: "I chantress. Its only strictly perfect feature there must be a contented sigh and remarked: "I chantress. Its only strictly perfect feature there must be a contented sigh and remarked: "I chantress. Its only strictly perfect feature there must be a contented sigh and remarked: "I chantress below the nip line, while the side seams are slashed about the same depth to allow fullness of the dress skirt beneath ture was the nose, which was of classic straightness. Her forehead was broad and high, draped with a heavy fringe of pockets are applied on either side about the hip line. Over the shoulders there are nextly employments of the trivial of the contract of and high, unaped with a feety irrage of dark-brown hair, parked sharply to one dark-brown hair, parked sharply to one defining those on either side, and this same idea is repeated on the cuff that fin-"A hansom."

"But, er, you know-er, they say the Queen refused to receive her."

were expressive and adjuring, but seemed ishes the plain coat steeve. The length of this garment is a good indication of what will prove both modish and serviceable for the late autumn and early winter seasons.